

Shore-based roles available

We are looking for team players with the following skills and time for both one-off tasks during the next six months and/or ongoing roles, as listed below. We currently have a management team of eight volunteers who provide structure, contact points and support, in addition to 30 boat crew currently undergoing their final training.

The operation is volunteer-run and recognises that no-one can put in more than a few hours a week at most. Frances Craven, Volunteer co-ordinator is happy to chat by phone or zoom to explain more about what's involved in any particular role: Contact her on volunteers.electra@bmkwaterway.org

At the moment, we are looking for help in these areas:

Marketing and sales

- Copywriter
- Custom Charter Administrator (there is a Job Description for this)

Community outreach

- People with contacts who can help us reach the business community both as customers and as sponsors of cruises for disadvantaged groups
- People with contacts with 'under using' community groups, which we want to attract as users
- People with skills for small fundraising bids for money to support 'sponsored cruises'
- Volunteer lead for our Outreach and Sponsored Cruises activities

Management team

- Marketing Lead
