

Have a great time on Electra

“A very enjoyable relaxing experience in lovely surroundings. The crew were very friendly and knowledgeable and the boat was very clean and comfortable.”

“Perfect choice for my Mum’s birthday, she was thrilled. Crew were friendly, enthusiastic and knowledgeable. Good tea and coffee! To quietly glide along the canal was a real treat.”

“We really enjoyed our fish and chip cruise, the team were friendly, the boat was comfy and the food was delicious!”

“Lovely relaxed atmosphere. Very calm and quiet. Good to be able to go and stand at the bow and watch everything. Tasty ploughman’s!”

“We loved the ride on Electra. Especially the lack of noise so that we could enjoy the nature around us.”

Who owns Electra?

Electra is owned by the Bedford & Milton Keynes Waterway Trust (registered charity 1114294). The Trust champions the creation of a nationally recognised Waterway Park linking Bedford and Milton Keynes that will bring social, economic and environmental benefits locally. Volunteers run Electra to raise awareness and funds for the Trust.

Enjoy river cruises too

The Trust also runs the John Bunyan Community Boat in Bedford, which carries up to 50 guests, with a bar and galley café. Get a different view of Bedford as you cruise through tranquil countryside and along Bedford Embankment. The John Bunyan offers a wide range of daytime cruises. Evening cruises include Irish Music, Motown & Soul Disco, and Jazz. The John Bunyan is perfect for large group outings – have the boat all to yourselves on a customised private charter.

Experience a different view of Milton Keynes

Electra is an all-electric, accessible narrowboat for up to 12 guests.

Celebrate in style with us or simply relax with family and friends. See our green spaces from a new angle, learn more about local history, and discover the wildlife as we glide quietly along the Grand Union Canal.

Electra has a small bar serving hot, cold and alcoholic drinks, including an Electra beer, and we offer great catering options.
